CANNONADING HEARD AND A BATTLE MAY BE IN PROGRESS

Japs Use a Little Satire and Combine Business With the Celebration of New Year

By Associated Press]

IRKUTSK, Jan. 6.—Many troop trains are passing through Irkutsk on their way to reinforce the Russian army in Manchuria. News of the fall of Port Arthur was received by the soldiers with sadness, but they express undiminished determination to retake it. The chief regret expressed by the soldiers and officers is that they did not arrive in time to relieve her garrison.

Sounds of Cannon Heard

BRLIN, Jan. 6.—The Lokal Anzeiger's Mukden correspondent in a dispatch dated January 6th says that Field Marshal Oyama in a letter to General Kuropatkin, communicating news of the capitulation of Port Arthur, praises the bravery of its defenders. The effect of the news was especially confounding, the last reports indicating long resistance. It is believed that it will immediately effect the situation on Shaki. Continued intense cannonading has been heard since dawn, near Sinchinpu and Shanhe. A resumption of the cannonading tomorrow is expected.

Celebrated New Year

MUKDEN, Jan. 6.—The Japanese celebrated the incoming new year January 2d., and sounds of music were plainly heard inside the Russian lines wherever the positions of the two armies closed.

According to Japanese custom, many kites and paper balloons were sent up. Some of the balloons, several feet in diameter, which fell inside the Russian lines, bore the inscription in Russian: "Happy New Year." The Japanese tried to combine business with pleasure and while the festivities were in progress an attack was made upon the village of Vitd, in front of one of their positions. The Russians replied with artillery on the right and center, and prevented the Japanese from occupying the village.

Jap's Accurate Aim

LONDON, Jan. 6.—According to the Daily Mail's correspondent from Chee Foo, Baron Kleist, a Russian naval officer, says that lack of ammunition was the main factor in determining the surrender of Port Arthur and that since September, when the first general order was issued announcing its scarcity, the greatest economy was exercised.

Baron Kleist says that the Japanese fire on the forts was so accurate that the men regarded the order to serve in the fort as a sentence to death. Many died without visible wounds from the mere violence of the concussion of the huge Japanese shells which made blood burst from the eyes, mouth and nostrils of those standing near. Early in the siege the ranks of the Russian artillery were so depleted that infantrymen had to be employed to serve the guns.

THE PRESIDENT IS CALLED A WAR GOD

The Republican Party Charged With Fraud—Argument That the Territories Oppose Joint Statehood

By Associated Press]

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 6.—The House today passed the fortifications bill and adjourned until Monday. After Mr. Litauer (New York) had drawn a lesson from the siege of Port Arthur to show that submarine mines had proved of the greatest importance in war-fare, Mr. Baker enlivened proceedings by attacking the President who, he said, wanted to hold himself up as a "counterpart of Wilhelm II, the great war god." Later Mr. Baker found fault in the provision of the bill permitting entry of such war material as might be purchased abroad and charged the Republican party with there being fraud in its contention that the foreigner paid the tax.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 6.—Senator Bard today occupied the entire time of the Senate given to the joint statehood bill. He made an argument against the union of Arizona and New Mexico on the ground that the people of the two territories did not desire it. Several bills of minor importance were passed.

THAWED POWDER WITH FATAL RESULTS

County Surveyor Thomas Shea of Nye County Instantly Killed at Goldfield Early Yesterday Morning

[Special to The Journal]

GOLDFIELD, Nev., Jan., 6.—Death has claimed another victim from the explosion of thawing dynamite. This time Thomas Shea was the fated one. He was a lessee on the Velvet claim near this city and he arose early to thaw a quantity of dynamite that was to be used in the day's operations on his lease.

The explosive was placed in the oven of a stove. About 8 o'clock the dynamite was set off by the heat and the stove and cabin blown to pieces. Mr. Shea was instantly killed.

The deceased was an old timer in Nye county and followed prospecting for many years. He came here from Wisconsin. No near relatives are known to exist here or in the East.

Mr. Shea took considerable interest in politics and at the last election was elected surveyor of Nye county.

CITIZENS' COMMITTEE PREPARE A BILL TO AMEND THE CHARTER

Judge Packard and City Attorney Williams to Make a Draft of a Bill for the Legislature

A meeting of the citizens' committe, appointed at a mass meeting to draft proposed amendments to the charter of the city of Reno to be presented to the State Legislature, was held last evening at the office of Cooke & Ayers.

President Stubbs officiated as chairman. The other members present were Attorney Cooke and Edward Barber, W. H. A. Pike and Dr. Franck being unavoidably absent. Councilman Drappo, City Attorney Williams and Judge P. N. Packard were also present.

There was a prolonged discussion of the following alleged defects in the charter as reduced to memoranda by City Attorney Williams:

Sec. 5. 1st election, etc—month and day of month named, and Police Judge be made an elective office. "Previous objection was that the tenderloin element might be in the majority and get control of said office."

Sec. 8. To be amended to conform with Sec. 5.

Sec. 9. Amend, as it is vague and not explicit.

Sec. 13. Amend in relation to segregation of Chief of Police, and Chief of fire department.

Sec. 17. Amend, in relation to salary, for Mayor and Mayor pro tem, be made more definite.

Judge Orr stated that he believed all ordinances of the town should be reenacted by the new city government, also that he favored the city being responsible for all cases that come under its ordinances and that he did not favor concurrent jurisdiction with the the Justice of the Peace. (See State Cons. Art. 74, Sec. 30.).

Powers of the City Council, Sec. 19. days' service.

Amend P. 3. To amend by inserting the word "paving" after the word "grading" in line 3.

Mr. Cooke suggested that the City Attorney make a memoranda of amendments necessary to Sec. 20.

P. 3. Amend to specify the businesses that may be licensed.

Mr. Pike suggested that a clause be put in the charter to regulate the number of saloons and barrooms in proportion to the number of inhabitants of the city.

P. 3. Eliminate the last two lines of this paragraph.

Mr. Pike suggested that no city ordinance be drawn, that will conflict with statutes, as the ordinances would take precedence.

Amend that section relating to city prisoners being kept in the county jail.

Investigate the ownership of the iron bridge and the cost of maintaining the same, and how shall it be apportioned.

Amend Sec. 33. Relatives to vacancies in city offices.

Sec. 39. Eliminate that portion relating to County Commissioners.

Sec. 44. Amend that part relating to resolution in line 8.

Sec. 44. Finally referred to City Attorney.

Sec. 46. Amend salaries of Clerk and Attorney, etc.

Sec. 18. Make provision to provide revenue to construct bridges, etc.

Sec. 7. To provide for board of health.

Look into the fact that both county and city collect license.

The matter of repairing the defects and reducing the same to legal phraseology was referred to City Attorney Williams and Judge Packard, the latter having volunteered three days' service. As soon as they complete their task another meeting of the committee will be called by the chair.

NEGRO APPOINTED CUSTOMS COLLECTOR

By Associated Press]

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 6.—The nomination of W. D. Crum, a negro, to be collector of Customs for the port of Charleston, S. C., was confirmed by the Senate in executive session today by a vote of 33 to 17. Crum has been nominated by the President three times and has received three successive appointments.

After United States Prisoners

Constable Grant, of Carson City, arrived in Reno last night for the purpose of taking four United States prisoners now in the county jail awaiting a hearing before the United States Grand Jury. He will take the prisoners to Carson this morning and they will appear before the Grand Jury there today. All of them are accused of selling whiskey to Indians.

Back From Carson

Deputy Constable Regan returned from Carson City last evening after spending several days there in attendance on the United States Grand Jury.

His royal highness will make his state entry into Dublin on January 23 and on the following day he will proceed to Ashford on a visit to Lord Ardilaun. On the completion of his visit to Ashford the prince will return to Dublin to be present at the first levee, which will be held in Dublin Castle on February 1st. On the two subsequent days he will attend the first drawing room and also be present at the investure of the Earl of Mayo as a Knight of St. Patrick.

Inauguration Day at Bismark

By Associated Press]

BISMARK, N. D., Jan. 6.—North Dakota's new State officials were sworn in today, the inauguration being accompanied with the usual ceremonies. The inaugural ball is to be given in the new wing of the State capitol tonight and promises to be a function of great brilliance

DEFENSE DEMURS IN THE WEBER CASE

Counsel Argues That the Indictment is Not so Worded as to Make Offense Alleged That of Robbery, but Grand Larceny

By Associated Press]

AUBURN, Cal., Jan. 6.—The case of Adolph Weber, charged with the robbery of the Placer County Bank, came up on demurrer before Judge Brewer today. Grove L. Johnson, of the counsel of the defense, was not present but the court ordered the case to proceed.

Attorney Taber in his demurrer attacked the sufficiency of the indictment on the ground that it did not charge that the money, of which the bank was robbed, was taken from the person of Bookkeeper McFaydon or from his immediate presence, but that it simply stated that it was taken from his possession.

He argued that to constitute robbery, money must be taken from the person, if only from the possession it would constitute grand larceny, a different crime. District Attorney Robinson argued that the indictment was mostly sufficient. Demurrer was submitted. Court adjourned until Monday.

EMERYVILLE MAY HAVE RACETRACK CLOSED

Proposed Legislative Bill—Sacramento Deserted by Solons Who Have Gone to San Francisco to Caucus for a United States Senator

By Associated Press]

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 6.—But few members of the Legislature are remaining in Sacramento until the conclusion of the Legislature recess next Monday morning and these are either lawmakers who brought their families with them or those who are taking but small part in the senatorial contest. With the scene of the struggle for the toga shifted to San Francisco, there is but very little interest in local headquarters of the candidates.

The general impression prevails that none of the aspirants for the senatorial plum left with enough votes to guarantee their election. In Senator Bard's headquarters it is stated that he would be in Sacramento before the voting on the senatorship is fairly under way.

General Frank S. Prescott, speaker of the Assembly, is still at work on his committee list, which he expects to be able to present to the Legislature next Monday morning. At a caucus of the Republican majority in the Senate today, there was considerable discussion on the recommendation to leave the confirmation of Governor Pardee's appointments, made during the interim since the last session, to the senator from whose district the apointee hails. No action was taken in regard to the matter, it being postponed for definite decision until next Monday morning.

A bill to prohibit horse racing at Oakland will be introduced at an early date by Assemblyman Espey, of Alameda county. The measure will be framed with the idea of prohibiting horse racing within five miles of the University of California, and if carried would result in closing Emeryville track. Richard Melrose is the first member of the electoral college that will hold exercises in the Assembly chamber next Monday afternoon, to arrive in Sacramento.

Boston Art Exhibition

By Associated Press]

BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 6.—The seventy-first exhibition of the Boston Art club was formally opened today and will continue until February 4th. The exhibition is pronounced by critics to be the best in the history of the club, comprising, as it does, the best work of a number of the foremost American painters and sculptors.

Southern Stock Growers

By Associated Press]

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Jan. 6.—Plans have been completed for the big convention of the Southeastern Stock Growers' association to be held in this city next week. The convention will be attended by leading stock growers of Alabama, Georgia and Florida. Secretary of Agriculture Wilson has accepted an invitation to address the convention.

GOVERNOR JOHN SPARKS RETURNS FROM TAXAS

Governor John Sparks arrived in Reno last night after spending several weeks in Texas and Utah, where he has been engaged in looking after his business interests there. The Governor is feeling fine after his long trip and reports having had a very pleasant time. He went to Texas for the purpose of looking after his cotton plantations and stock ranges and found them in a prosperous condition. He spent nearly two weeks in Salt Lake City and Ogden, where he disposed of some very important business. On arriving in Reno last night Governor Sparks drove immediately to his home on the Alamo stock farm.

Intercollegiate Hockey

By Associated Press]

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—At the St. Nicholas rink tomorrow night the teams of Princeton and Columbia will line up on the ice for the opening games of the season for the Intercollegiate Hockey League.

There has been a marked revival of interest in ice sports this winter and the hockey season promises to be the most notable since the game was introduced among American colleges. The schedule arranged by the intercollegiate league extends up to the middle of February. The membership comprises the teams of Yale, Harvard, Columbia, Brown and Princeton.

A Wonderful Watch

By Associated Press]

PARIS, Jan. 6.—A Paris firm, probably the oldest watch makers of Europe, has just completed, after seven years' work, a very remarkable watch. It is of gold, and is beautifully chased. It marks the day, month, year and leap year for a hundred years; the phases of the moon, seasons, solstices, equinoxes, the time at 125 of the principal cities of the world, the rising and setting of the sun.

It comprises a chronograph, a repeater for hours and minutes, a thermometer, barometer, hygrometer, alimstre up to 5,000 metres, compass and a peal of small bells. It contains 24 mechanical movements, and consists of 975 distinct parts.

Battle of New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, La., Jan. 6.—The anniversary of the battle of New Orleans, which occurred on January 8, 1815, will be commemorated tomorrow with exercises held under the auspices of the several patriotic and historic societies. The day is a legal holiday in the State of Louisiana.

FORESTRY CONVENTION PASSES RESOLUTIONS

By Associated Press]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Among the recommendations made by the Committee on Resolutions of the forestry convention today were the following:

Repeal of the timber and stone act; legal authority for the sale of all non-mineral products on the forestry reserve; immediate purchase of the grove of Calaveras Big Trees by the national government and reconveyance of Yosemite Valley to the national government; that all schools, especially rural, should study forestry, tree planting and their effects on the national welfare; amending of homestead law to require the planting of at least five per cent of the area before final title is acquired.

A CONTEMPORARY has christened that sterling Republican and noble patriot, Con A. Ahern, of Virginia City as "Mr. Smith." Such is fame. Sic transit gloria mundi morning.

THE Missouri postmaster, just dead after holding office for thirty-five years, could have given a few pointers on political flopping, even to some of our Nevada statesmen.

SOME astrologer predicted that this would be a year of calamities, and already the press announces that a new walk is coming into fashion that is even worse than the kangaroo.

MISSOURI girls have taken up the fashion of carrying guns. We thought there was something wrong with the people of that state when the election returns began to roll in.

THE Colorado Republicans who refuse to become parties to the scheme to steal another term for Peabody are the most far-sighted politicians in that miscellaneous bunch.—Butte Inter-Mountain.

PROBABLY in the history of the world there never was a more striking instance of a modest appreciation of true worth than when Receiver Smith of the Shipbuilding trust demanded $200,000 for his services.

A LONDON inventor has discovered a light that will never go out. If he could invent a husband who would never go out—at least at night—he would be supplying a want long felt in many American households.

ADVICES from Sacramento state that Herrin, the S. P. boss, is with Flint in the fight for Senator and that Knight is to get the "double cross." It's purely a matter of spelling: Flint's friends are close to the throne, while Knight's friends are close to the thrown.

THE thriftlessness of the British aristocracy is becoming something appalling. Four lords got married recently to chorus girls. When one thinks of the good American dollars thereby thrown away, it is enough to make the contemplative English economist shudder.

THE corporation of Glasgow are considering a proposition to ship all the drunkards from that city to an island in the Hebrides. Should this custom be generally adopted we look some day to see the geographies defining an island as "a body of whisky entirely surrounded by water."

OTHER States sneered at Nevada when she passed her prize fight law, but the present instance where the Sheriff refuses to permit a contest at Sparks shows that the law was really a measure of morality and reform. Nevada could give a few tips to California on this particular subject.

THE lady who married young Dunphy, son of the Elko County "cattle king," is suing him for support, but will not get a divorce for fear he may marry again. We presume that this line of action is prompted by thoughtful consideration for her marriageable sisters of the world, but we would hate to swear to it.

THE San Francisco newspapers state that Mrs. Ng Ching Wang, a Chinese lady of that city, received an American education, and then goes on to relate how she left her husband to elope with another man. The San Francisco newspapers should not permit local customs to govern them in their ideas of what constitutes "an American education."

ROOSEVELT after all didn't carry but three-fourths of the electoral vote of Oregon. Of the four electors of that state, one failed to register and the Secretary of State counted him out, or rather declined to count him at all. The highest candidate for elector on the Democratic ticket gets the certificate, and the same would have been a powerful important factor if the election had been a tie, which it wasn't.—Ventura Democrat.

WILL YERINGTON CONTEST?

THE JOURNAL dislikes to credit the report from San Francisco that James A. Yerington will contest Congressman Van Duser's seat. Jim has always enjoyed the reputation of being a game fellow, and it was thought he would make a game loser.

If it be true, however, that he intends to carry the case into Congress, we predict that he will lose. Illegal votes were cast in Goldfield, no doubt, but that is no reason why the vote of the entire community should be thrown out. The logic is obvious. If it were the rule to throw out the entire vote because a part of it happened to be fraudulent, any unscrupulous candidate might secure his own election by the simple expedient of causing the perperpetration of frauds in th eprecincts where his opponent happened to be the strongest. It is right that the illegal votes at Goldfield should be cast out, but it would be a crime should one of the largest communities in the state suffer total disfranchisement because of the wrong-doing of a fraction of its population. And unless the entire vote of Goldfield is thrown out Van Duser cannot be unseated.

Mr. Yerington made a strong fight against an able and energetic opponent—a Congressman of proved efficiency—and has cause to be proud of the showing he made—a showing that promises him great things in time to come from his party and from the people. But the prosecutor of a contest, seldom, if ever, emerges with credit from his suit, and generally makes nothing but unpopularity by his ill-advised petinacity. The world loves a graceful loser. It is for his own sake, and for no other, that The Journal would be glad to hear that the report of a contest by Mr. Yerington is without foundation.

THE government has sold the jewels which were confiscated from Mrs. Phyllis Dodge five years ago. She stated that she had forgotten that she had them, but strange to say the government did not believe her. This is all the more peculiar when it is recalled that they were worth the miserable trifle of $60,000.

MR. CARNEGIE is quoted as expressing not a little surprise at the gullibility of some persons who were Mrs. Chadwick's victims. There is a difference between individual gullibility and the kind evinced by a government at times—in such cases, for instance, as paying two prices for armor plate.—Los Angeles Herald.

TO CELEBRATE GREAT VICTORY

Japanese Will Commemorate Port Arthur's Fall by Patriotic Meeting Tonight

The many loyal subjects of the Mikado of Japan will gather at Manning hall on Plaza street this evening at 7:30 and celebrate the welcome news of the fall of Port Arthur in a fitting and joyful manner. They have worked hard in arranging a program for the evening and have secured the services of several of Reno's most prominent citizens, who will meet with them and help him celebrate a victory, which has placed the Japanese warriors on a footing with the most scientific and daring soldiers of the world.

The little brown men of this city have not been able to reach their home country and take part in the war which is named among the greatest wars the world has ever known, but they are with their Mikado in spirit and the news of every victory is received with rejoicing. They sent money to the little nation, which is putting up such a desperate and winning fight and show their patriotism in many other ways.

The celebration this evening will be full of spirit and all the Japanese in the city will be there. They have arranged to have a good orchestra in attendance and have selected the leading Japanese in the city to speak and tell of the great war from the standpoint of the Japanese. These speakers will address the meeting in English and in their native tongue and will not only speak of the great patriotism shown by their brothers on the battle field, but will describe some of the great battles of the bloody war, as they are told by the Japanese papers. Some of Reno's leading citizens will also address the gathering and will help in every way to make the celebration a glowing success.

Following are the Japanese speakers who will address the meeting this evening: F. T. Yamasaki, K. Oto, K. Yashiki, N. Kawana, F. K. Shigemo, O. Takeya and H. R. Kawanami. These speakers are well educated in their native language and several of them have been educated in American schools. Several of the little men from the land of the chrysanthemum will also sing native war songs.

The following Reno citizens will address the meeting and tell of the war from an American standpoint:

Dr. J. E. Stubbs, president of the University of Nevada; Attorney N. A. Hummel, J. Sunderland, Jr., William McClure Gotwaldt, E. L. Bingham, A. Boyle, B. W. Parker, James Hart, W. McManaman and Will Pope. All of these gentlemen are interesting talkers and will tell some entertaining things concerning the great war.

The Japanese in charge of the affair have issued an invitation to the public and express a desire for all to attend. They say there will be dancing after the meeting and want everyone in Reno to attend and help them celebrate.

A GOOD COMPANY IN A MERRY FARCE

It is said that an extraordinary good company has been placed on the road by Manager Coleman of the American Theater, New York, to support Harry Beresford in the merry farce, "Our New Man" from the pen of Mr. Charles T. Vincent. It may be said that no comedy on the stage today has been more productive of laughter than this one, and it does not seem possible that and other player could be found capable of infusing more naturalness into the part of the unsophisticated, awkward, lovable professor of physiography than does this young actor, who has been said to be a versatile, inventive and clean in his "business," spontaneous and great in his acting and artistic in his treatment of details and withal so thoroughly convincing and interesting that he commands the attention at all times, playing upon the human soul, while he appeals to the intellect.

In this case, however, the emotions are only those pleasureable ones which act upon the risibilities of the audience, with the result that all who hear "that odd fellow" go home at peace with themselves, each other and the world, for they have laughed away all other cares. This play will be presented here soon, and the occasion promises to be such a notable one that our theatre goers should not fail to be present in full force. Mr. Beresford will play Reno Wednesday, February 8th.

CURED LUMBAGO.

A. B. Canman, Chicago, writes March 4, 1903: "Having been troubled with lumbago at different times and tried one physician after another; then different ointments and liniments, gave it up altogether. Then tried once more and got a bottle of Ballard's Snow. Liniment, which gave me almost instant relief. I can cheerfully recommend it, and will add my name to your list of former sufferers." 25c, 50c and $1.00.

WAS KILLED BY A TRAIN

Coroner's Jury Finds That James Smith, the Derby Cook, Was Not Murdered

An inquest was held yesterday afternoon over James M. Smith, the cook, who was found dead near Derby a few days ago, and after a thorough investigation of the circumstances surrounding his death, the Coroner's jury brought in a verdict of accidental death. The evidence showed that he had been struck by a train and killed and there was no evidence of foul play. The deceased had been working at the construction camp for several months and was quite well known there. He always had a little money and was well liked by the men working at the camp.

The day before his body was found on the railroad track he quit his position and got drunk. He then started to go to Adoth. He was last seen by J. C. Rodgers, who testified that he saw him walking along the track in an intoxicated condition. Several other men testified that they saw him drunk and that he was on his way to Adoth, where he intended to get employment. The witnesses at the inquest yesterday were:

Mr. Rodgers, G. Nihil, F. Hoffey, G. Mariani and Frank Harman.

The remains of the deceased are now at Reinhard & Co's. undertaking parlors and the funeral will take place from there today.

Sterling Towers Wins

Many of the local sports are bewailing their fate because they failed to back Stearling Towers in a race at the Oakland track yesterday afternoon. The odds were 8 to 1 and those who had the right "hunch" cleaned up a little money, while those who failed to bet, were sorry that they did not have confidence in the horse. Stearling Towers was backed several days ago by a large number of the sports and failed to pass under the wrie in the lead, and consequently the racing men were afraid to back him.

MISS MARIE WAINWRIGHT

Will Appear in This City Next Saturday Evening in Famous "Twelfth Night"

There is no diversity of opinion regarding the real merit, the exceeding beauty, the gorgeousness of the production, or the exceptional excellence of the cast in the revival of the "Twelfth Night" which will be seen at McKissick's Opera House on Saturday, January 14th, with Miss Marie Wainwright as Viola.

Criticisms and reports from all cities in which Miss Wainwright has appeared are unanimously eulogistic. Some dwell upon the charming art of the actress, her exceeding beauty, and her perfect symetry of form of which glimpses are revealed in the scenes in which she appears as Cesario, the duke's boy messenger of love.

Others praise the production from a scenic standpoint, extolling the many beautiful scenic pictures. Still others proclaim it to be the most complete and perfect revival, taken as a whole, for its ensemble work, its scenery, its light effects and costuming. This probably best expresses the real dramatic value of this revival.

Shakespeare's comedy "Twelfth Night," more so than any of his other plays, requires a star cast for its proper interpretation. This Manager Jules Murry has provided. It requires beautiful scenic environment, gorgeous costuming and fine light effects, and all these have been provided. Unprecented success has been the result of his efforts, and deservedly so.

Home From Chicago

George Lyman, who has been visiting in Chicago for several months, arrived in this city last night. He was called home by the sudden death of Daniel Haugh, who has resided at the Lyman home for many years.

QUALITY...

If there is one thing that you want when you go into a drug store it is quality. You want quality in drugs and chemicals; quality in all prescription work; quality in everything that has to do with medicine. Is it not so? Certainly, there can be no question about it. That is why our trade is so large. It is a recognised fact that our label on a bottle of medicine stamps it with quality, because it never goes out on a bottle or box of medicine that does not possess quality.

RAILROAD MAN PASSES AWAY

Orion Glover Dies of Pleurisy After Being Confined to His Bed For Only a Few Days

Orion Glover, day foreman in the Southern Pacific yards, at Sparks, died Friday morning at 4 o'clock from pleurisy. He was taken ill last Wednesday, and his friends had no thought that bad results would follow. He gradually grew worse, and they thought that it would be necessary to call a doctor. Dr. G. U. Hall was summoned to attend to the wants of the dying man, and did all that was in his power to prevent his death. His efforts proved of no avail, however, and the man passed away several days after he was taken down.

Through the important position which he held with the company, he was well acquainted with all the railroad people of Sparks. He has been in the employ of the company for several months past, and was well thought of by those who knew him.

Besides having many friends in Sparks, he was well acquainted in Reno. He was initiated into the Knights of Pythias at their midwinter lodge held in Reno last winter. He was also a member of the order of Railroad Conductors.

Before coming to this city he resided in Chattanooga, Tenn., and only a short time ago came to this State where he has since been a resident. He was a member of Damon lodge of his home town.

No arrangements have yet been made for the funeral, and it is probable that the Knights of this city will take charge of the remains. Perkins & Oliver have charge of the fuenral.

Meeting of F. & A. M.

The Masons of Sparks will hold a meeting in Robison hall this evening. All members of the town lodge are cordially invited to attend, and the same greeting is extended to their brethren from outside localities. After the business of the evening has been transacted, those present will enjoy a feast which has been especially prepared for the occasion.

Using Wadsworth Brick

Several carloads of the old brick which had formerly been used in the construction of the Wadsworth shops that have been recently torn down, have been hauled to Reno. The Reno Brewing Company is making use of them in the additions which they are making to their brewery. They are in fairly good condition considering the hardships that they have undergone.

Skating at Asylum

A large number of people are taking advantage of the fact that good skating can be secured at the asylum. As a result the street cars have been crowded with the merry skaters. They have found that this is the best way to reach the asylum.

Entirely Recovered

H. Heidenger, the car repairer, arrived from San Francisco yesterday, where he has been confined to the Railroad hospital at that place. He has entirely recovered from the effects of the injury received while at work in the shops several weeks ago.

COMPANY MAKING MANY CHANGES

Carpenters Have Been at Work for a Week Making Improvements on the Depot

A large number of improvements have already been made on the Southern Pacific depot and greater improvements are in contemplation. Carpenters have been at work for the past few days, and they have accomplished considerable work since they began labor on the depot. In order that communication between the first and second stories of the building might be facilitated, several minature elevators have already been finished, while others are only in course of construction. The small elevators are operated by means of a pulley, and in this way the boxes in which the letters are placed are lowered or raised as the occasion demands. The system which the company has just installed is a worthy one, and considerabe time will be saved by means of it.

On the lower floor improvements are also under way. The carpenters in the employ of the company have placed a double window between the two rooms on the east end of the stairs.

SALVATION LASSIE IS CALLED INTO COURT

Margaret Beller, the seventeen-year old girl who deserted the Salvation Army a few weeks ago and began to lead a life of shame, was called before Judge Richardson, Chief Leeper and the officers of the Salvation Army yesterday, who told her that she was too young to be where she was and persuaded her to return to her home. The girl said that she preferred to remain where she was and positively declined to return to her home.

The Salvation Army people claim that the girl was sent to this city from Boise, Idaho, by her parents, who thought that work in the army would reform her. She began entering the saloons in behalf of the organization however, and was soon drinking and associating with a fast set. One day she grew tired of the army work and began to lead a fast life. She was accused of taking $40 belonging to the Salvation Army, but the accusation could not be proved.

Unless the girl will agree to return to her home, the officers of the Salvation Army will probably call upon the officers to take her from the tougher district on the grounds that she is under age. She will then be sent to the Rescue Home of the army.

DIES AFTER YEARS OF MUCH SUFFERING

Mrs. Santina Perasso, the wife of a farmer residing near Wadsworth passed away in this city yesterday after years of suffering. Her mind was afflicted and she had been in this city for many years doctoring. Her husband will arrive from Wadsworth today and make all arrangements for the funeral. The body is now at Perkins & Oliver's undertaking parlors.

The deceased was a native of Genoa, Italy, and in the old country was a neighbor of Louis Avansino. She came to this country over eighteen years ago and since that time has resided in Nevada. She is survived by a husband and two children.

The Modern Woodmen of America installed officers for the ensuing year and received twelve applications at their last meeting. The lodge will hold initiation services the latter part of this month and intend to take in twenty-five new members. The officers installed were as follows:

CORONER WILL HOLD INQUEST

Inquest Over Body of Tom Montague, The Night Watchman, Was Not Held at Sacramento

The body of Thomas Montague, the Southern Pacific night watchman at Sparks, who died a few days ago in the railroad hospital at Sacramento from the effects of injuries he received in the yards, arrived in Reno yesterday, and is being held at Reinhard & Company's undertaking parlors.

Coroner Read will hold an inquest over the body this morning, and the manner in which he met his death will be determined. No permit has been received from Sacramento, and the Coroner at that place decided that the case came under the jurisdiction of the Coroner of Washoe county.

He suffered from hemorrhage of the brain as a result of the accident he received, and it is believed that this was the cause of his death.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence of Mrs. Montague's mother, Mrs. Biggs, at 31 Plaza street, corner of Center. Rev. Father Tubman of the Catholic church will have charge of the funeral services. The body will be laid to rest in the Knights of Pythias cemetery. Reinhard & Company will have charge of the undertaking arrangements.

A Peaceable Town

Since Judge Pollock was appointed Justice of the Peace in Sparks on the 18th day of last July, eighty-three cases have come before him. The greater part of the cases belong to the vagrant class, although some of them are quite important. Considering the length of time that has elapsed since the judge first took charge of the office, it can be seen that the number is exceedingly small. Sparks is a peaceful town, and the number of crimes committed has been very small.

For the Painters

Since the carpenters have received a certain portion of the Southern Pacific shops for their special benefit, the painters felt that they should be given a part in which to do their work. The carpenters were at work yesterday on the part that will be partitioned off for their especial benefit. They expect to complete the work within a short time.

Advertising the State

S. Dutch, representing the Denver Post, Denver's leading daily, spent yesterday in Sparks. The Post intends to issue a special edition devoted entirely to the resources of Nevada. Mr. Dutch was trying to secure a man who would aid him in his work. He was successful in his work, and Sparks will be well represented in the special number.

Taken to the Hospital

Robert McKenzie, private secretary to Superintendent Shaughnessy, was taken to the Railroad hospital at San Francisco last evening, suffering from bronchitis. He has been ill for the past few days and thought that it would not amount to anything. He gradually grew worse until it became necessary for him to take the trip.

Trip Over the Road

Superintendent J. F. Shaughnessy departed yesterday on a trip of inspection along the different points of the railroad east of Sparks. The trip is a monthly one, and he intends to return to Sparks shortly.

COLLECTS COIN AND ABSCONDS

S. Herbert of the Evening Gazette Embezzles $450 and Leaves for Parts Unknown

S. Herbert, formerly circulation manager of the Reno Evening Gazette, has suddenly left the city and has taken with him $460, which rightfully belongs to the evening paper, but which he collected from subscribers and appropriated for incidental expenses. For this reason his former employers are now looking every everywhere for him, but in vain.

Sheriff Ferrell, Constable Wilson and the police are also trying to locate the missing newspaper man, but he has mysteriously disappeared and has forgotten to send back the much wanted coin. Herbert also appeared to be absent minded in regard to many other little bills in the city and from all reports owes considerable at one of the leading hotels of Reno, where he and his blushing bride lived for nearly a month before their sudden departure.

Officer Ferrell is making every effort to arrest the absconding circulation man, and has telegraphed to all towns in California, giving a minute description of the fellow and requesting the officers to arrest him on sight. He is thought to be in San Francisco and the officers here believe that he will be apprehended in a short time. If caught he will be brought back to this city and charged with embezzlement.

Herbert planned everything well before shaking the dust of Reno from his clothes and it has been a very difficult manner to locate him. He sent his wife to her home in Nevada City several days before he left and took great care to let his friends and employers believe that he was going to remain in the city during the winter. After his wife had gone and he had gathered in all the coin he could readily get hold of, he boarded an evening train for the coast without even writing a note or telephoning the main office that his position would be vacant on the morrow.

Herbert came to this city from Sacramento several months ago and immediately secured a position on the Gazette. He worked hard and it was thought that he was honest, but from present appearances he must have been working with only one object in view, that of absconding with all the coin he could secure.

He engaged in a family quarrel in the city not long ago and beat a man named Kelly up in a brutal manner, and threw him out of his own home. He then swore to a complaint charging his victim with assault and battery, saying that he had defended Kelly's wife. Judge Nash dismissed the case however, saying that he thought Herbert to blame in the matter. Shortly after this fight Herbert was married, but kept his wedding a secret and it was several weeks before the fact that he was a married man became known.

Why he was so anxious to keep his wedding a secret could not be learned. His sudden disappearance is the last sensation he has created in the city and if the officers capture him it will be the last one for some time to come.

National and State Forest Policy

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 6.—The subject of national forest policy was taken up this morning by the American Forest Congress and was discussed from every point of view.

The officials of the General Land Office, Geological survey, and the Bureau of Ferestry led the discussion and outlined at great length the present work and future plans of the Federal government in regard to forests and their preservation.

The congress closed its work this afternoon with a session devoted to the discussion of State forest policy. State forest officials and agents of the Bureau of Forestry, who have been extensively engaged in co-operative state forest work, treated the subject in a practical way.

As a result of the discussions it is expected that uniform legislative measures looking to the protection and extension of the forests will be introduced in the Legislatures of many States this winter.

Another Landmark Doomed

THE fiat has gone forth that the Iron Bridge livery stable must be torn down. This edifice at the intersection of First and Virginia street has grown unsightly with age and glaring red paint can no longer hide its senile twists, stoops and decay.

Until a day or two ago it was occupied by A. M. Campbell as a livery stable. His lease expired on the first of the year and the new owners of the ground, the Reno Lodge of Masons, would not renew it, hence the abandonment.

It is but a few months since the old Salvation Army barracks across the street was torn down in order that Uncle Sam might erect a stately and costly Federal building there.

A similar fate awaits the old stable. It will be razed and in its stead will arise a beautiful temple of Masonry. Thus time brings its changes. The landmarks of Reno's early days are one by one disappearing and in their stead are the tokens of growing cityhood.

Where the emigrants drove their ox teams down to Lake's Crossing, the trolley car now speeds and the lowing of the patient beasts that drew civilization to the westward is replaced by the angry clang of the street car bell.

The old stable was once Reno's theatre. It was a famous dance hall and was the social center of the primitive community, but now it is an eyesore. Strangers comment as they compare its gaunt ugliness with the beauty of the stately bricks in the vicinity.

But history has no commercial value. It is a mere bagatelle to please the children, the women and the infirm. Progress must have the center of the stage. Old Monumental was allowed to go to the scrap heap, the almshouse is filled with Washoe's builders and now the old theatre building must follow its antiquated companion across the street to the rubbish heap.

It is all very well to brush away the musty past to make room for the present and give the future a chance, but it is also well to stop and meditate a while.

The Journal would welcome a communication from some old timer on the history and some of the incidents connected with the ugly old ruined building that is about to be torn to pieces and carted away.

THE "DENVER POST" TO ADVERTISE NEVADA

S. J. Dutch and M. E. Burns, special representatives of the Denver Post, who have been in this city for several days past, on business connected with their paper, will leave this morning for Tonopah, Goldfield and other mining towns in the great gold country for the purpose of colecting data for their paper. These gentlemen are experienced newspaper men and have been sent to Nevada by the Denver Post for the purpose of gathering material for a special edition of the paper on Nevada and her resources.

The Denver Post intends to issue a 72-page edition on Nevada and her many resources and are going to great expense in gathering information. Messrs. Burns and Dutch, who have charge of the work, will place representatives in every large town in the State and the edition will be the most complete write up of the State ever published.

It will give exact information regarding Nevada's mining, lumbering and agricultural resources and will show where the State is just beginning a period of prosperity, which few States have ever had. The paper will also give information on all railroads and will give a great deal of space to the government irrigation work now in progress in the Sagebrush State. It will also contain writeups on all of Nevada's most prominent business men, attorneys, doctors and other professional men.

Mr. Burns and Mr. Dutch will spend several days in the southern country and will arrange to cover that portion of the State thoroughly.

MURPHY, THE HERO, AGAIN IN THE TANKS

J. Murphy, the man who gained considerable notoriety by rescuing an Italian who was buried unedr 25 feet of earth while working in a well in this city some time ago, was arrested on a charge of drunkenness last night and placed in the city prison. He will also be sentenced by Judge Richardson today for running away from the city chain gang several weeks ago.

Recovered From Sickness

Miss Belle Morgan, who is employed with the Washoe County Abstract Company, was in the office yesterday for the first time after an illness of several days.

NEW BRIDGE IS ABSOLUTE NEED

The City Arranging to Erect a Structure to Stand for Ages

City Engineer Stewart has a corps of men at work surveying for the proposed bridge across the Truckee on Virginia street. A report of this work will be made to the City Council so that there can be a basis for intelligent plans in this important matter.

The old bridge has seen its best days. It has been patched and painted, braced and bolstered until it is like a crazy quilt with new and old material and like the proverbial chain it is only as strong as its weakest link and there are a number of them that are strained to the breaking point.

Some day the fire engines will thunder over the structure for a blaze on the Southside and there will be a gap where the bidge now stands. The Councilmen realize that something must be done without delay and it is the evident intention to proceed in the matter of a new bridge before many weeks.

If a bridge be built it will not be placed on an angle like the present one, which lines up with nothing. Captain Gosse, who owns the frontage on the south side of the river, will permit its being placed so that it fronts partly on the Riverside grounds and this will enable it to line up with that portion of Virginia street north of the river, leaving a right angled jog on the south side.

The bridge must be much wider than the present one. As the electric line will use it in common with foot passengers and carriages, it will be necessary to construct it at least eighty feet wide. This will permit of a twelve foot space for the track in the center, protected by a low wall, a broad driveway on either side and a pedestrian path at each edge.

The bridge must be a substantial structure, one that will stand for many decades and this will cost considerable money, probably necessitating the issue of bonds, but few would vote against such a measure.

Offering Inducements

The Flanigan Warehouse Company is making wonderful reductions in its line of vehicles in order to clear out all the stock that has been carried over the winter. A big inducement is the giving of a chance to each customer in a handsome buggy that is to be presented to the holders of the lucky number.

Some men think they cannot be fitted in ready made clothing. On the contrary, it is easier to find a perfect fit in ready made than to get it specially made, for your tailor seldom hits the mark on the first trial.

In the Second Judical District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for Washoe county.

The State of Nevada sends to Edith C. Jolliffe, greeting:

You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by Frank H. Jolliffe as plaintiff in the Second Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for the County of Washoe, and answer to the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this Summons (exclusive of day of service), if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, but within said District, and in all other cases forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The action is brought to recover a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant, as will more fully appear from the complaint on file herein, on the grounds that defendant willfully and without cause in February 1899, deserted and abandoned the plaintiff and ever since has and still continues so to willfully and without cause desert and abandon plaintiff, and to live separate and apart from him, without any sufficient cause or reason, and against his will and without his consent.

All of which will more fully appear from the Complaint, which is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court, at Reno, in said county, and to which you are especially referred. And you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Seal of said Court, at Reno, this 16th day of December, A. D., 1904.

W. A. FOGG,
Clerk of the Second Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for Washoe County, by

SUMMONS

In the Second Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for Washoe County.

The State of Nevada sends to Charles F. Courtney, greeting:

You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by Carrie E. Courtney, as plaintiff in the Second Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for the County of Washoe and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this Summons (exclusive of day of service), if in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, but within said District, and in all other cases forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The action is brought to recover judgment against you to dissolve the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant on the following grounds to-wit:

That on or about the first day of December, 1901, the said defendant disregarding the solemnity of his marriage vow, willfully and without cause deserted this plaintiff, and ever since has, and continues so to willfully and without cause desert and abandon the said plaintiff.

That the said defendant has treated the plaintiff with extreme cruelty using personal violence, by striking and beating the said plaintiff, and on divers times struck her in the face so severely that she carried the marks for several days; that owing to said acts of violence plaintiff was in constant fear during all the time she lived with the defendant.

That since plaintiff's marriage with the defendant, the defendant has failed to contribute anything toward the support of the plaintiff, and she was compelled to perform labor for others, to provide herself with the necessaries of life; that failure to so provide was not the result of poverty on the part of the defendant which he could have avoided by ordinary industry.

All of which will more fully appear from the Complaint, which is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court at Reno, in said County, and to which you are especially referred. And you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Seal of said Court, at Reno, this 10th day of October, A. D. 1904.

W. A. FOGG,
Clerk of the Second Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for Washoe County.

A Strong Pull.

A Long Pull

and a pull together is just as necessary in the meat business as in politics. We've the pull in this town—that's sure. There are tricks in the butcher business, just as in politics, but that isn't our way of running a pure food emporium.

This Is Our Way:

Every article we sell we guarantee. If you buy something that is unsatisfactory in our markets send it back and we'll exchange it. If you have anything delivered that is not up to your expectations, return it. We would rather lose both cost and profit on a sale than have a single dissatisfied customer. Would not you like to have a "strong pull" with us?

THINK POLICE ARE BOGIE MEN

Chief Leeper Says Parents Should Not Teach Their Children to Fear the Officers

"Go to sleep little one, or I will call the policeman" or "Johnnie, if you are not good, I will tell the policeman and have you taken to jail," are the words that many mothers of the city use in frightening their children into obeying them, never thinking that the little children to whom these words are addressed remember them and always start with fright when the word policeman is uttered or run for protection every time they see a large, good natured guardiun of the peace coming down the street. The youngsters do not know that the officers are always looking out to see that everyone, especially the children, are safe from harm.

"The police are innocently used by the majority of parents as a whipping post," as Chief Leeper expresses it, and are feared as a bogie man in every household, when they should be pointed out as guardians of all and a person to whom all little ones should go to seek protection.

This state of affairs was brought forcibly to the mind of the Chief of Police a few days ago, when a gentleman of the city stopped him on the street and said: "Chief, I am going to bring my little son down to see you. He runs away all the time and I want you to scare him." The Chief looked at the gentleman for a moment and said:

"Bring your little son down sir; I want to see him and will make him understand that all policemen are his friends; not his enemies." The chief then continued to explain to the startled father why he would not scare the child. In explanation, he said:

"Many parents make a great mistake by scaring their children and making them obey by means of mentioning a policeman's name. Now this is more than a mistake; it really puts the little ones in a dangerous position, as they will often run into danger to escape a policeman, when they should run to him for protection. Policemen are as a rule the most kind hearted men in the world and it is a shame that they should be feared by all children and pointed out by all parents as persons to be feared.

"Now I am a policeman myself and I know how it is. I walk along the street and every little girl or boy I meet, that I am not personally acquainted with, shuns me in passing and will walk on the farthest edge of the side walk to avoid me as much as possible. I know they fear me and I am sorry for them, because I love children.

"I have always taugh my children to respect policemen and have always told them to seek a policeman when in trouble, no matter where they were. My youngest boy remembered this and this knowledge kept him from being lost on a recent trip to San Francisco. I was already there and he was to meet me. He came on a delayed train and I missed him. I wandered through the city, going to the different stations and asking the different conductors if they had seen him, but it was useless. Finelly I was going from Oakland to San Francisco after searching in Oakland for him and was surprised to find him on the boat. It was then 2 o'clock in the morning, but he did not seem to be at all frightened. Of course he was safe, but I asked him how he knew where to go as he had never been in a large city before and he said:

"'O, I asked a policeman what to do.' I then said, well, if I had not seen you, what would you have done?. He replied by saying 'that he would have been taken there.'

"My son is only a child but he was as safe in the big city as he would be at home, and just because he did not fear the officers, but had he feared the officers he would have been lost."

TO FIGHT THE STANDARD OIL

Flanigan Warehouse Company Is Preparing to Compete With the Great Trust

The Flanigan Warehouse Company of this city has arranged to handle the famous Bull Head illuminating oil from the oil wells of Southern California Oil Company and will erect tanks in this city and compete with the great Standard Oi trust. The Standard Oil Company controls the business all over the United States and whenever an independent company starts in business the great trust absorbs it or drives it out of business. The Flanigan Warehouse Company will enter the business to stay and has declared that it intends to fight the Standard Oil people to the last ditch and if possible sell most of the oil used in the State of Nevada.

The company has arranged for the building of its large tanks and will place them next to the oil tanks of the Standard Oil Company in the western end of the city. The tanks will be larger than those owned by the Standard Oil people and will immediately be filled with Bull Head oil.

The entry of the Flanigan Warehouse Company into the oil business of this State will have a tendency to lower the price of the oil and before long the people of Nevada will, without a doubt, have an opportunity to buy oil at a very low price. The Standard Oil people are seldom beaten, but the Flanigan Warehouse Company is also firm in all of its business dealings and unless the great trust will allow competition without a fight there will be "something doing" in the oil business.

FINE OUTLOOK FOR BUSINESS

Merchants Find the Expected New Year Slump a Minus Quantity

Inquiry among merchants and other business people yesterday by a Journal representative revealed the fact that the usual afterholiday slump failed to strike the town. Trade is reported excellent and there is the best of feeling prevailing.

Usually there is a great falling off in trade after the first of the year, but the clerks all seem busy and bank officials say that the deposits of cash by merchants keeps up amazingly.

There was only one previous season when January was not a very dull month in Reno and that was in 1902. There is every indication that this season will prove a repetition of two years ago.

REV. CARLISLE P. B. MARTIN, LLD. Of Waverly, Texas, writes: "Of a morning when first arising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm, which produces a cough and is very hard to dislodge; but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will at once dislodge it and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons needing a medicine for throat or lung trouble." 25c, 50c and $1.00.

RENO AS POINT OF OUTFITTING

Three California Prospectors Buy Stock of Goods and Start Overland

Reno is proving a popular outfitting point for the new gold fields. Yesterday three men arrived from California, Messrs. Crawford and Mr. Fidler. They purchased a wagon and span of horses and started out to gather an outfit together.

Stopping first at the J. Marymont Company's Workingman's Friend store they bought two tents, 40 quilts, 25 pair of blankets, several mattresses and a quantity of clothing bringing their bill up to $300.

They then visited several grocery and hardware stores where they gathered together a quantity of provisions, camp stoves and other implements, bringing their load up to nearly two tons. It cost them upwards of $1,000. The party leaves in the morning for the new diggings.

Only One Drunk Arrested

Officer Meffley arrested George Hawkins and placed him in the city prison yesterday, for being drunk and disorderly. He is the only man the police have arrested for several days and they are guarding him closely as the jail will soon be empty at the present rate and they wish to have at least one prisoner to watch.

Will Build a Castle

A Pythian castle is one of the probabilities for Reno in the near future. Amity lodge is seeking a site for the erection of a hall. It will probably be located on south Virginia street.

HAPPENINGS IN NEVADA STATE

News of the Various Counties Told in Brief Paragraphs

DIED—In Brunswick, Nevada, January 5, 1905, Sarah Jane, wife of Robert G. Dickson, aged 44 years, 4 months and 5 days.

Miss Jeanette Cameron, of Virginia City, has been engaged to teach the Fredricksburg school for the remainder of the term.

The postoffice at the Mountain House has been re-established. The mail will now go direct to Topas instead of going around by Bridgeport.

Rev. B. J. Darneille will remain in the Carson parish for the present at least, as he received word yesterday that will enable him to stay.

Chris Jeppensen is exhibiting some ore taken from his mine near the Winters that looks good. Some of the rock is covered with the precious metal.

Ralph Hardesty, the 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hardesty, of South Fork, is dangerously ill and there is hardly a hope for his recovery.

Dan O'Doan, the man who was convicted last June in the Washoe District Court of bigamy, is petitioning the board of pardons for release from the State prison.

The citizens of Fallon are making every effort to have a branch railway extended to that town and at a mass meeting held last week a resolution was passed guaranteeing to the Southern Pacific Company a right of way from Fallon to Hazen free of expense to the company.

Through the efforts of L. R. Ames and Frank Simpson, a company has organized in Smith Valley with sufficient capital subscribed and paid, to build a telephone line from Wellington to Gardnerville. It is probable that the erection of the line will commence in the near future.

Goldfield residents do not believe in cheap labor and have, very properly, notified all the Chinese and Japanese in the town, in a polite but positive manner, to take their belongings and go hence. For several months past the aliens have been flocking to Goldfield until they have become so numerous that the miners and business men of the place have thought it best to protect their interests by ordering them from the camp. Thus far orders have been obeyed and no trouble in manner, to take their belongings and maker of Truckee have gone to Tonopah to make their fortunes.

Commendation From a California Newspaper

The Reno Journal's New Year number was one of exceptional interest and beauty. It was essentially a Nevada paper, and each of its twenty-four handsomely printed pages held something of interest to its State's readers. The contributed articles were well written and timely, and The Journal is to be congratulated upon a production of merit, and one that attests as forcibly as anything can the progress that Reno has made during the last few years.—Lassen Advocate.

While the "Stately Surtout is beyond criticism. Our Overcoats are made up in the swellest styles of the season, in black unfinished Worsteds, Oxfords, Smooth Kerseys, Rough Friezes and Warm-toned Meltons. Interview With the Vice-President of the Goldfield Bulls and Bears

M. C. Scully, vice president of the Bulls & Bears Mining Company, arrived from Goldfield last night and is a guest at the Overland. He expects to leave for San Francisco this morning on a business trip.

The Bulls & Bears is one of the great properties in the Goldfield region. There has already been about 140 feet of work done on the property, which contains an eighteen foot ledge, forty-five per cent of which carries splendid gold values.

A quantity of the ore has been shipped to the Western Ore Purchasing Company and the returns were away up. There are thirty-five men at work in the mine. They have crosscut the ledge and find that it dips to the east. A shaft will be sunk 100 feet to pick up the ledge on its angle. Stock in the company is almost impossible to obtain at present at the quoted prices.
